salmon, telles and mackerel. Also bulk oysters on Wednesdays. Give Fresh candy every day at Mandel's.

Gasoline Explodes; Flames Suppressed.

Box 5 continues to be the hardest worked fire alarm station in town. It was rung in yesterday afternoon for a blaze in the basement of the Pakes bakery. There is an apparatus there for making gas from gasoline to light the building.

The machine got to bucking under the manipulation of Tony Gamme, and the gallon and a half of liquor took a notion to explode. For a minute or two it looked like a serious conflagration, but under the direction of Chief Hodgkinson, chemical extinguishers, wet blankets and a garden hose conquered the fire without damaging the basement with an engine stream.
More damage was done by smoke than by fire.

Biggest Assay Yet Recorded.

John Fitzgerald is one of the luckiest men in the village. He has a piece of rock in his possession that he picked up three years ago in the high Sierras.
It don't look so mighty rich. It's composed of hard, yellow clay and yellowish looking iron pyrites. No, they are not pyrites for they are not angular.
John gave a piece of the rock to Ollie Perry to assay, expecting to get at least traces out of it. Perry returned him 5,712 ounces of gold and 11,424 ounces in silver or about $125,000 a ton. Truth is, the stuff's probably silverite. As soon as the snow goes, Fitzgerald will go ditto, and when he returns with a burro load of the stuff, there will be a supper for six in a private box.

A Duty to Be Performed.

The Grand Jury of Washoe county has an onerous duty to perform. It has been instructed to ascertain if lottery ticket selling is practiced in Washoe county, and if they find that this traffic is being openly carried on without any attempt to stave it by the officers, the latter are to be brought before them for impeachment.

Every possible effort should be used to stamp out this iniquitous business that annually draws from the State huge sums of hard earned money.

It is the duty of every good citizen to assist in breaking up this insidious vice.

Audience Disturbed by Verdant Youth.

A recent arrival in Reno is an unsophisited young man by the name of George Vice. He is bookmaker in the Owl pool rooms and understands his business even if he is green about city ways.

There's nothing in a name. "Vice" is not, as the post Pope says, "a monster of horrid men." He is an innocent silksox shoveler who can recite the Westminster catechism backwards and knows when Sunday comes. He went to the theater night before last and — Oh, what's the use going into details. You all heard the break he made.

"A Midsummer Night's Dream."

Among the theatrical entertainments offered or to be offered during the present season, there are few if any, which have a more genuine fascination than the appearance at the Opera House Saturday evening of Louis James and Kathryn Kidder in Wagn-hals and Kemper's gorgeous production of Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

In "A Midsummer Night's Dream" Shakespeare has given form and place to the fairy kingdom and with the natural creative power of genius he has created a soul into his merry little citizen.

Stockholders Annual Meeting.

holders of the Reno Real Estate and election of Trustees to serve for the ensuing year, and for the transacting of such other business as may come before the meeting.

By order of the Trustees,

F. M. Lee,
244audt Secretary

clearance sale.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE

The Assembly Enlivened by Three Kickers—Lottery Don't Know That It Is Dead.

THE fourth day of the twentieth session of the Nevada Legislature was comparatively uneventful—if a Kilkenny cat time in the Assembly and a sly bit of chicanery in the Senate are not taken into consideration.

The "difficulties" in the lower house are detailed in our correspondent's letter, but another matter deserves some publicity. The President of the Senate is alleged to be a lottery man. If all other proof were lacking, the reader need but glance at his appointments to the Ways and Means committee to see the trend of events.

Gentlemen of the jury, there is still plenty of fight left in the lottery gang, notwithstanding their severe drubbing by both houses of the Legislature. The Ways and Means committee must report upon the bill within fifteen days and then will come the decisive vote. The "antis" claim a majority of one in the Senate and ten in the Assembly but there will be danger in slumbering during the next couple of weeks.
